完整使用条款。如您填写、复制或分发本表格，即表示您接受以下条款。

1. Purpose and status

The AI Use Schedule is an industry awareness instrument designed to help productions record and communicate their use of artificial intelligence tools in a consistent format. It is intended to support conversations between filmmakers, producers, production houses, distributors, buyers, studios, sales agents, festivals, insurers and financiers. It has no regulatory status and creates no rights or obligations between any parties. Completing the schedule is voluntary. The schedule is an educational resource only.

2. Not legal advice; no professional relationship

Nothing in this form or its guidance notes constitutes legal, financial, insurance, tax or accounting advice, or an opinion on the law of any jurisdiction. AIVR MPG is not a law firm and does not practise law. Use of this form does not create an attorney–client, advisory, agency, partnership, fiduciary or employment relationship with AIVR MPG or any of its officers, members, volunteers or contributors.

3. Territorial variation — obtain local counsel

Requirements concerning AI disclosure, copyright subsistence and ownership of AI-assisted works, moral rights, performer and personality rights, digital replicas, consent and residuals, training-data provenance, consumer protection and data protection vary materially between countries and, in some countries, between states, provinces or regions. They are also subject to rapid legislative and judicial change. Users must obtain advice from qualified legal counsel admitted in each relevant territory — including every territory of production, principal photography, post-production, financing, licensing, distribution and exhibition — before relying on this form in any negotiation, delivery, chain-of-title or E&O context.

4. Self-declaration; accuracy is the user's responsibility

All information entered is supplied by the completing party. That party is solely responsible for its accuracy, completeness and currency, and for ensuring the schedule is updated if AI usage changes after signature. AIVR MPG has no access to production materials, does not review submissions, and performs no verification, audit, forensic analysis or technical inspection of any film, master, tool, account or consent record.

5. No certification, endorsement or clearance

A completed AI Use Schedule is not a certificate, seal, mark of compliance, guild approval, clearance opinion, or evidence that a production complies with any law, guideline, collective agreement or delivery specification. No party may represent, in marketing or in any transaction, that a film has been "approved", "certified", "cleared", "verified" or "rated" by AIVR MPG on the basis of this form.

6. No reliance by third parties; no duty of care

Buyers, studios, distributors, festivals, insurers, financiers and any other third party who receives a completed schedule do so at their own risk and must conduct their own due diligence. AIVR MPG owes no duty of care to any recipient of a completed form, and disclaims any assumption of responsibility arising from publication of the template. Nothing in this form is a substitute for contractual representations and warranties, chain-of-title documentation, errors and omissions insurance, or independent legal review.

7. Naming of third-party tools

Fields calling for the name, version or licence tier of an AI tool are for record-keeping only. Reference to any tool, vendor, model or service is not an endorsement, and is not a statement by AIVR MPG as to that tool's legality, licence terms, output ownership, training-data provenance or fitness for any purpose. All third-party names and marks remain the property of their respective owners.

8. Personal data and likeness information

This form may capture personal data, including names, contact details and information concerning performer likenesses and consents. The completing party acts as the sole data controller (or equivalent) for that data and is solely responsible for compliance with applicable data protection law, including as relevant the GDPR, UK GDPR, CCPA/CPRA, and any national or state biometric, digital replica or personality-rights statute. AIVR MPG does not collect, receive, host, store or process completed forms unless a user voluntarily submits one, and users should not submit privileged, confidential or trade-secret material to AIVR MPG. AIVR MPG does not ask you to send completed forms.

9. Collective agreements and local labour law

This form does not supersede, interpret, vary or satisfy any obligation arising under any collective bargaining agreement, union or guild rulebook, side letter, or national or local labour law. Where a production is covered by such an agreement, its terms govern and must be complied with independently.

10. Warranty disclaimer

The form and all accompanying guidance are provided "as is" and "as available", without warranty of any kind, whether express, implied or statutory, including without limitation any implied warranty of accuracy, completeness, merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, currency, or non-infringement. AIVR MPG does not warrant that the form is suitable for any specific production, transaction or jurisdiction.

11. Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, AIVR MPG and its officers, directors, members, employees, volunteers, contributors and agents shall have no liability for any direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary or punitive loss or damage — including loss of profit, revenue, financing, distribution, goodwill or opportunity, or the cost of legal proceedings — arising out of or in connection with the use of, or reliance upon, this form, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or otherwise. Nothing in these terms excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for fraud; some jurisdictions do not permit certain exclusions, and in those jurisdictions liability is limited to the minimum extent permitted by law.
